

RAY B. BURTON JR.

BORN: MAY 20, 1939

DIED: SEPTEMBER 15, 1991

Word has been received of the death of Ray B. Burton Jr., 52, of Niantic, Conn., and New York City, nephew of Jim and Joe Routon of Henry County. He was the son of Catherine Routon

Burton of Knoxville and the late Ray B. Burton Sr.

Formerly with Equitable Securities Corp. in Nashville, he died Tuesday in Lawrence Memorial Hospital,
New London, Conn., from complications of liver disease.

He was a founding principal of Trevor Stewart Burton & Jacobsen Inc., a New York investment firm.

Because of his illness, he resigned in March as executive vice president and director of Trevor Stewart.

Memorial services were this morning at the Chapel of St. Bartholomew's Church, Manhattan, N. Y., and will be 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Old Lyme, Conn.

Born in Knoxville, he was educated at Woodberry Forest School, Orange, Va.; Vanderbilt University, Nashville; and the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

His professional career as a bond specialist spanned 25 years.

In the early 1960's, he served as a lieutenant in the Navy.

Survivors also include his wife, Karen “Missy” Burton; two sons, Ray and David Burton of Knoxville; and a sister, Betsy Willis of Chicago, Ill.

He was a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Routon Sr. of Paris.
