

THE HAYMES FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE

From

The Routons of Paris and Henry County, Tennessee

by Stephanie Routon Tayloe

William Hames (note the spelling) was born 1682, the son of Randolph and Charity Hames. William married Elizabeth Morris, the daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Morris.

The children of William Hames:

1. William b. 1711 m1 Winfred Fann, daughter of John Fann and Mary Stone (from a very old Virginia family)
2. John Hames b. 1713 married Ruth
3. Charles Hames b. 1725 d. 1751 married Lucreasy
4. Charity Hames b. 1719 married John Harris
5. Elizabeth Hames married Richard Jones
6. Mary Anne Hames b. 1722 married William Allgood

William Hames, Jr. (Wm., Randolph Hames) married Winifred Fann, the daughter of John Fann and Mary Stone. The Stone family is one of the oldest families of Virginia and going far back in England. George, Mary's great grandfather, was in Virginia in 1730, where he married Mary Vernon of an old family of England. There have been many governors named Stone in the South, all from this family.

The children of William Hames Jr. and Winifred Fann:

1. Charles b. 1732 d. 1807 married Catherine Krugg.
2. Edmund b. 1735 b. 1802/03 married Winifred Hightower.
3. Mary Ann b. 1737
4. Rachel b. 1739
5. John Hames
6. Randolph Hames b. 1743 d. 1790 m. Faithful Coldman

Edmund Hames (Wm Jr., William, Randolph Hames) born July 18, 1735 married Winifred Hightower, the daughter of Joshua and Eleanor Hightower of Richmond County, Virginia.

The children of Edmund Hames and Winifred Hightower:

1. Joshua Hames b. 1758 m. Susannah
2. John Hames b. 1760 m. Martha Walker
3. Winifred Hames

4. Mary Hames married Jesse James
5. Nancy Hames m. William Jackson
6. Martha Hames b. 1770 married William Brildgeman
7. William Henry Haymes b. 1779 m. Heneritta Maria Irby

William Henry Haymes (Edmund, Wm. Jr., William, Randolph Hames) was born about 1770. He married Heneritta Maria Irby, the daughter of Charles Irby Jr., of Amelia County, Virginia.

See WILLIAM HENRY HAYMES, JR.